THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any expected recommendation; but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we look give it many thous not more, are briefly as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it candenses wit on unimpostant, at full length when of moment, and always present at in a clear, intelligible, and in it, easing manner.

It is a first-rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delected and excriptions texts.

It is a first-rate story paper. The best false and romances of our, at the rature are carriedly elected and leathly printed in its pages.

It is a first-rate story paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on arricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no parry and wearing no collar. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devoes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threafen to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.
